Terms & conditions including risks & restrictions	To get the best from your savings accounts: plan to leave funds deposited until the maturity date. Early redemption: affects your interest. If you withdraw funds prior to maturity, interest is recalculated at the On Call Savings Account rate, 0.0% pa . Any difference payable back to us may be deducted from the principal. If an early redemption of part or all of the deposit is made on hardship grounds, we have discretion as to approval and to the amount of interest paid. The principal is transferred to your NICU transactional account, or rolled over. If we don't have your instructions on maturity, we rollover the deposit to a similar term at the current available rate, or deposit to your primary NICU account if the term deposit product is withdrawn. The interest rate may be less than the rate offered on your initial term deposit. Special tier: of $1,000-$4,999 is available to an individual natural person accountholder aged up to 20 years.
